SUBJECT: MORSTAD

Report No.: HSC-291
Report Date: 16 Aug 46
Information Date: 16 Aug 46
Date Info. Received: Current

NOTE: WISCHMANN's friend, H. DOHRING, is a reporter by profession. WISCHMANN visited him at his home in Bad Ischl, Austria (Karlaustrasse). DOHRING told WISCHMANN about MORSTAD and his proposition.

1. MORSTAD is a newspaper reporter, just like DOHRING. He visited D., coming from Vienna, and made him the following proposition:
2. If DOHRING could arrange to come to the American Zone of Germany as an Austrian newspaper man, MORSTAD could "make it worth his while": MORSTAD would pay well for intelligence reports (production program, production figures, possibilities of financial investment, disposition of the manufactured goods, etc) regularly sent in from the American Zone of Germany to Vienna.
3. DOHRING is scheduled to travel to Vienna and there to discuss the proposed possibilities.
4. MORSTAD is a Viennese, 1.80m tall, dk. blond, small elongated face; he drives a cabriolet V-8, black paint, with papers issued by the British; British flag is pasted on the windshield.
5. COMMENT: It is unlikely that the British in Vienna would be interested in covering the American Zone of Germany.
